About This Collection

We need to write a short enticing description (60-90 words) for an adult photo gallery based on scrambled site captions provided. The gallery title is "edupage account". Write description in same language as title, which is English (since title is English). So description in English.

We must turn captions into one coherent engaging paragraph teasing models, setting, action without listing captions mechanically. Naturally reuse at least 20% of key words from captions (names, nicknames, distinctive terms), translating rest as needed. End with natural invitation to view full gallery via link above. Plain text only, no markdown, no lists, no quotes.

Constraints: No AI-flag words: delve, tapestry, vibrant, testament, landscape, showcase, crucial, pivotal, additionally, moreover, furthermore, "it is important to note", "serves as", "boasts". No generic positive endings; end on a concrete fact or plain natural invitation. No emojis, no curly quotes, no markdown, no bold text. No inflated importance, no sales language, no clichés like "nestled", "breathtaking", "unforgettable". No "not only X but Y" constructions, "At its core", or forced groups of exactly three items. No em or en dashes; split sentence or use comma. Use "to" instead of "in order to"; use "because" instead of "due to the fact that". Vary sentence length naturally, state things directly, keep every claim supported by provided captions.

We need to incorporate at least 20% of key words from captions. ", "กตปม", "ต", "Личный аккаунт", "EduPage". That's many words in multiple languages.

We need to reuse at least 20% of key words. Let's count distinct key words? We'll include words like "EduPage", "GitHub", "mobile app", "icon", "logo", "phone", "screen", "close-up", "Alamy", "Realschule", "aSc Help", "password", "account", "archived", "hi-res", "stock photography", "personal account". Probably need to include at least maybe 10 distinct words from captions. That's many.

We must produce 60-90 words. Let's target ~80 words.

We must not use forbidden words. Avoid "delve", "tapestry", "vibrant", "testament", "landscape", "showcase", "crucial", "pivotal", "additionally", "moreover", "furthermore", "it is important to note", "serves as", "boasts". Avoid "nestled", "breathtaking", "unforgettable". Avoid "in order to", use "to". Avoid "not only ... Avoid "At its core". Avoid forced groups of exactly three items (like "A, B, and C" exactly three). but". So we must be careful not to produce exactly three items in a list. Avoid "due to the fact that", use "because". Use varied sentence lengths.

We must end with a concrete fact or plain natural invitation, like "View the full gallery at the link above." That's a plain natural invitation. Must not be generic positive ending like "Enjoy!" Must be concrete: "View the full gallery at the link above." That ends with a period.

We must not use markdown, quotes, bold, etc. Just plain text.

We must ensure we reuse at least 20% key words. Hard. That's maybe 17 distinct words. But we need to naturally reuse at least 20% of the key words from the captions. Safer to include many distinct words. Probably they count total words in captions? 20% of total key words? Let's count unique key words we will embed: "EduPage", "GitHub", "mobile app", "icon", "logo", "phone", "screen", "close-up", "Alamy", "Realschule", "aSc Help", "password", "account", "archived", "hi-res", "stock photography", "personal account". Not sure. We'll embed maybe 12 distinct words.

We must not use "and" to list exactly three items. But we can list more or less. But they said "forced groups of exactly three items". So avoid exactly three items separated by commas and "and". We can just write sentences.

We must ensure no em or en dashes. Use commas.
